SOPHOMORE TEA DANCE HELD IN D. U. HOUSE

The Sophomore tea dance, held in the D. U. House from three to five o'clock yesterday afternoon, was a fine success. A buffet lunch was served, and Schwarz's Orchestra furnished music. About 75 couples were present.

Much credit for the success of the dance is due the committee, which was composed of the following: C. Smith, Chairman, Doane, and Kaiser, '23.

HOCKEY TEAM DEFEATS LITTLE FALLS CLUB

Captain Kaiser's Players Win by 7-0 Score—Game Witnessed by 1000 Spectators.

Hamilton College's hockey team defeated the Little Falls Hockey Club team Saturday afternoon at Little Falls by a score of 7 to 0. The game was played on the canal at Little Falls, but poor ice made playing difficult. The contest was witnessed by a crowd of about 1000 people who lined the sides of the canal and the two bridges over the ends of the rink.

The Hamilton team scored regularly throughout both halves, Thompson, Clark, and Kaiser scoring the goals for the Buff and Blue.

The line-up:

Hamilton (7).	Little Falls (0).
R. J. Reeder, g.	Jones, g.
Marlow, c.p.	Stanley, c.p.
R. G. Reeder, p.	Claudel, p.
Clark, r.w.	White, r.w.
Capt. Kaiser, l.w.	White, l.w.
Thompson, c.	White, c.

TWO MORE INTERCOLLEGIATE DEBATES THIS YEAR

The debate season, so successfully started by the victory over Amherst, includes at least two more contests, according to Professor Marsh of the Department of Public Speaking, who is coach of the debate squad. The first of these is to be a triangular debate with Lafayette and Union, which will be held on March 18. The proposition for debate is "For and Against the Use of the Injunction in Labor Disputes." This is the same proposition that was used in the Amherst debate. This debate will be a formal one of the customary type. All the final arrangements for this debate have been concluded.

It is probable that a triangular debate will be held with Rutgers and Wesleyan. If the contest is held, it is expected that the same proposition will be used as in the Lafayette-Union debate. In the event of Wesleyan's decision not to take part, the contest will probably be made a dual debate.

1922 JUNIOR PROMENADE HELD IN SOPER GYMNASIUM

Over a Hundred Couples Attend the Social Event of the Winter Season on the Hill—Gymnasium is Artistically Decorated - Music is Excellent and the Prom Proves a Great Success.

Dance-o-mania reigned at the 1922 Junior Prom in the Soper Gymnasium last night. It was a whirl of riotous colors, soft lights, bewitching music, laughter, and happiness. The harrowing days of examinations were over, and everyone surrendered himself or herself to the subtle charms of the biggest social event known on the Hill during the year.

Well over a hundred couples were there to feel the inspiration of Schwarz's eight-piece orchestra, an orchestra that out-jazzed the jazziest. The conglomeration of sounds turned out by this aggregation of melody makers kept everyone swaying around the floor with undiminished "pep" from nine last night to six this morning. For the first tracings of light were to be seen over the astern hills when the last strains of "Carissima" died away and the merry crowd departed for breakfast.

All the details that go to make a dance a success were carefully arranged by Chairman Pope and the Committee. The program this year was cut down to twenty dances, for it had been found by experience that in previous years the scheduled dances were rarely completed. But let it be said to the praise of the Committee, that this year's program was completed. Yes, the entire program, with three-fourths of it fox-trots, was completed.

The decorations were skillfully done by the Payfitch Sales Company of Utica. Green and white were the predominating colors. White lattice work formed the basis for the decorative scheme. The lattice was arranged along the sides, outlining the fraternity booths, and also extended over the ceiling, forming a canopy. This ceiling network was entwined with smilax and profusely filled with electric lights. Colored lights were arranged above these and so connected that they could be used with great effect for the moonlight dances and novel color schemes. The lattice work of the booths was entwined with Southern smilax, laurel, and crimson ramblers. The orchestra booth was situated at the north end of the gymnasium as has been the custom in previous years.

Mrs. King kept the punch bowls filled throughout the evening with a delicious concoction that quenched the thirst and sent the dancers away refreshed and enabled to continue their pursuit of happiness upon the dance floor. About one o'clock refreshments were served in the various fraternity booths. This also was under Mrs. King's personal supervision, and her supervision produced most excellent results.

Probably the most effective and impressive touch of the entire evening came with the singing of "Carissima". The gaiety of the moment before was hushed as the men gathered in the center of the floor and reverently sang the words that in some manner get at the real heart of this hilltop life and mean so much to Hamilton men.

The dance programs were of black leather, and were in the form of card-cases. Inside the cover they were stamped with the Hamilton seal in gold. The Prom Committee, to whose diligent endeavors was due the unqualified success of the 1922 Prom consisted of the following: Thomas B. Pope, Chairman, Damon L. Getman, Harold M. Hartness, Russell G. Miller, Paul W. Pitkin, Roscoe G. Reeder, Henry Severin, Jr., Leroy B. Sherman, Jr., William H. Spice, Jr., and Roger H. Williams.

The patronesses were as follows: Mrs. Frederick C. Ferry, Mrs. Albro D. Morrill, Mrs. William H. Squires, Mrs. William P. Shepard, Mrs. Arthur P. Saunders, Mrs. Edward Fitch, Mrs. Frederick M. Davenport, Mrs. Calvin L. Lewis, Mrs. Cleveland K. Chase, Mrs. Frank H. Ristine, Mrs. Horace Seely-Brown, Mrs. William M. Carruth, Mrs. Nelson C. Dale, Mrs. Donald B. Durham, Mrs. Albert I. Prettyman, Mrs. Milledge L. Bonham, Jr., Mrs. Joseph L. Russo.

BASKETBALL GAME WITH TUFTS SATURDAY

Advance information on the Hamilton-Tufts basketball game to be played on the Hill Saturday night points to an easy victory for the Buff and Blue. However, the Tufts team has been playing steadily during the past few weeks and will be ready for a hard contest.

Foundation for the belief in Hamilton's success is based on the fact that the Connecticut Aggies defeated Tufts by a margin of ten points. The Aggies, in turn, fell before the Trinity five with only half of their opponents' score to their credit. The Buff and Blue team played Trinity before Christmas and lost on foul shots. On the following night, Captain Cowan and his men defeated Amherst, which is judged the superior of the Trinity team in every way.

Coach Ziel is calling for practice with the opening of the new term and expects to have all of his squad in first class condition for the opening game.

With the Colleges

The University of Toronto has maintained its place as the largest university in the British Empire with a registration this year of 5250 men

Student Associations of the Y. M. C. A. are organized in 764 colleges and universities in the country. The Y. W. C. A. has 750 college organizations.

Stevens at Hoboken will soon dedicate a new library which will be one of the most complete in the country. The museum will occupy the first floor, the library the second, and student organizations the top floor.

There are 1,176 higher institutions of learning in the United States. This list includes all the universities, colleges, professional schools, colleges of agriculture, mechanical, technological and mining science, normal schools, theological seminaries, and junior colleges.

By vote of the undergraduate body, Wesleyan University has abolished the practice of kidnapping in vogue at the time of underclass banquets. Strong opposition by the faculty on the ground of personal danger in the practice played a large part in its abolishment.

The University of Washington is the first in the United States to engage in an international debate. On January 21 it met the University of British Columbia, Canada. The University of Washington was included in the recent itinerary of the debate team from Princeton University, which met seven different Pacific Coast institutions in debate.

The University of Pennsylvania has withdrawn the rule that men holding college degrees may not play on the athletic teams of the colleges which they are at present attending. This allows men in the graduate and professional schools to play on any of the athletic teams of the University of Pennsylvania. The change became effective January 1, 1921.

More men are specializing in the field of English Literature at Harvard than in any other branch of study. According to figures recently made public, 363 students have chosen this subject. Among the more popular fields of concentration, economics comes next with 314 men, chemistry is third with 200, Romance Languages fourth with 178, and history fifth with 126.

The Honor System continues to be the subject of discussion in American colleges. It has recently been adopted in the Military Department of Colorado Agricultural College, by the students of Ohio State University, Gustavus-Adolphus College, Minnesota, and Valparaiso University, Indiana. Other student bodies having the same under consideration are Bethany College, Iowa, University of Michigan and Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical College.

The 1922 Junior Prom

Greatness in a College

The recent decision of the President of Princeton University to limit the number of students at that institution to 2,000, is of considerable interest to the advocates of the small, but strong, college. President Hibben's aim is to make Princeton "a great college, not a small college."

This decision is one which should be heartily commended. The results of an educational institution should be determined by the quality of men graduated rather than by the number of those who receive diplomas.

The advantages of a small college, if it is properly conducted, are considerable. Close relationships between undergraduates, those between student and professor, and small classes all afford opportunities for betterment which the large university cannot offer.

There is one field in which the university necessarily has an advantage, the field of graduate study. For specialization the university is peculiarly adapted. But the advantages of the small college remain. Experience has shown that quality can best be secured where quantity production is not aimed at. Masterpieces are not produced by the gross, nor are the best types of college men. President Hibben's decision only confirms the opinion held by those who believe in Hamilton College, which is, that quality is preferable to quantity.

Williams College has started a new magazine, the Williams Graphic, which will be issued monthly.

Oberlin College has again conducted a student chest drive for funds to cover all campus activities to which students would be asked to contribute during the year. The average was $9.00 per capita.

The University of Pennsylvania won the Intercollegiate Soccer title by defeating Princeton, 4-2, in a post seasonal game played at the Marion Cricket Club in Philadelphia on December 16. Two tie games were played before the Pennsylvania team wrested the championship away from the Orange and Black.

Crap games on and near the University Campus have been prohibited by the Senior Council at Syracuse. That body has also issued directions forbidding freshmen from wearing orange colors and high school pins or insignia.

Stanford College has decided to build an athletic stadium costing $750,000 and seating at least 60,000 persons. It will be the bowl type, and construction will start next summer. It will be equipped with a 220-yard straight-away track and will accommodate American rugby and soccer football.

The Yale eleven, although whitewashed by both Harvard and Princeton, played before more people than any previous Yale eleven and doubled the gross gate receipts. Attendance at the games played by the Yale gridiron squad amounted to about 230,000 people. Eight games were played in the bowl.

How is a Wireless Message Received?

EVERY incandescent lamp has a filament. Mount a metal plate on a wire in the lamp near the filament. A current leaps the space between the filament and the plate when the filament glows.

Edison first observed this phenomenon in 1883. Hence it was called the "Edison effect."

Scientists long studied the "effect" but they could not explain it satisfactorily. Now, after years of experimenting with Crookes tubes, X-ray tubes and radium, it is known that the current that leaps across is a stream of "electrons"— exceedingly minute particles negatively charged with electricity.

These electrons play an important part in wireless communication. When a wire grid is interposed between the filament and the plate and charged positively, the plate is aided in drawing electrons across; but when the grid is charged negatively it drives back the electrons. A very small charge applied to the grid, as small as that received from a feeble wireless wave, is enough to vary the electron stream.

So the grid in the tube enables a faint wireless impulse to control the very much greater amount of energy in the flow of electrons, and so radio signals too weak to be perceived by other means become perceptible by the effects that they produce. Just as the movement of a throttle controls a great locomotive in motion, so a wireless wave, by means of the grid, affects the powerful electron stream.

All this followed from studying the mysterious "Edison effect"— a purely scientific discovery.

No one can foresee what results will follow from research in pure science. Sooner or later the world must benefit practically from the discovery of new facts.

For this reason the Research Laboratories of the General Electric Company are concerned as much with investigations in pure science as they are with the improvement of industrial processes and products. They, too, have studied the "Edison effect" scientifically. The result has been a new form of electron tube, known as the "pliotron", a type of X-ray tube free from the vagaries of the old tube; and the "kenetron", which is called by electrical engineers a "rectifier" because it has the property of changing an alternating into a direct current.

All these improvements followed because the Research Laboratories try to discover the "how" of things. Pure science always justifies itself.

HIS STUDENTS loved him.
* * *
HE WAS so full.
* *
OF FUNNY surprises.
* * *
ONE DAY he had a tube.
* * *
OF RADIUM and he told.
* * *
THE STUDENTS all about it.
* * *
AND FINALLY, by mistake.
* * *
INSTEAD OF the tube.
* * *
HE PULLED out one.

OF HIS cigarettes.

AND ASKED the class.

"WHAT IS the one thing.

WHICH DISTINGUISHES.

THIS MARVELOUS substance.

FROM ALL others on earth?"

AND THE class roared.

"THEY SATISFY."

WHAT is it you've always wanted a cigarette to do? You know the answer. Chesterfields do it—they not only please your taste, they satisfy! It's all in the blend—a secret blend of fine Turkish and Domestic tobaccos. It puts Chesterfields where none can touch them for quality and value.

HOCKEY TEAM TO PLAY TUFTS FRIDAY

The Tufts hockey team will meet the Hamilton seven on the local rink Friday, February 4. The Tufts team has an enviable reputation after defeating several colleges in Maine and Massachusetts. The Hamilton game will be one a series of games to be played on their annual eastern trip. The game will start at 3 o'clock.

Saturday afternoon, the Buff and Blue will journey to Colgate to meet the Maroon hockey team for the first time in the history of the two colleges. Colgate is starting the sport this season but has developed a team sufficient to defeat the seven of R. P. I. by a score of 2 to 0.
